With over thirty years' experience, Angelo Anglani's work centres on commercial litigation and international arbitration. He provides strategic counsel to clients, leveraging his deep expertise in Italian law and cross-border proceedings. His practice ranges from general commercial litigation to securities litigation, mass and class actions, construction<sup>1</sup>, energy and environment, and, more generally, contentious or pre-litigation matters arising from M&A and commercial contracts, including insolvency-related aspects. Frequently involved in recognition and enforcement matters in Italy and abroad.

He is actively involved in international and domestic arbitration, whether under the rules of ICC, CAM and other arbitral institutions, under ad-hoc rules, or in the context of court challenges of arbitration awards, as well as in relation to recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards.

Frequently appointed as arbitrator in international arbitration proceedings.

He has acted as expert on Italian law in legal proceedings pending before foreign courts, preparing affidavits and/or expert reports on aspects of Italian law applicable to the relevant disputes. He also repeatedly assisted, as counsel, foreign clients in mediation procedures held in Italy.

Mr Anglani is a member of: IBA - International Bar Association (Past Chair and member of the Advisory Board in the Litigation Committee, Officer of the "Future of Legal Services" Commission and member of the Arbitration and Mediation committees); ICC Italy Commission on Arbitration and ADR (member); A.I.A.- Associazione Italiana Arbitrato (member of the board); ArbIt – the Italian Forum for Arbitration and ADR (co-founder and current co-chair); AIGE – Associazione Italiana Giuristi Europei. Member of the appointing authority of ASEAC – Asian European Arbitration Center.

Author of publications and articles in his fields of expertise, he regularly serves as a speaker or moderator at conferences and seminars, often at the international level. Lectures on litigation, arbitration and other means of dispute resolution, in the context of post-graduate specialisation courses.
